Investment Strategy & Process

Investment Strategy

- The International ADR Strategy pursues long-term capital appreciation by investing in quality, international companies.
- The portfolio management team uses a robust, quantitative stock selection model to identify companies that have attractive risk/return profiles.
- The team favors investments that offer above-average growth prospects at reasonable relative valuations, strong and/or improving earnings growth rates, as well as sustained earnings quality and good capital deployment.
- The team looks for investments that benefit from differential regional and sector growth trends, have stock-specific growth drivers such as a product innovation, distribution, or operational adaptability, and sustainable business models that do better than peers across the economic cycle.

Investment Process

- The investment process combines quantitative and fundamental discipline to construct portfolios.
- The quantitative approach brings objectivity to analysis, breadth in coverage and systematic process to the buy and sell decision.
- Fundamental research complements this data-focused analysis. The seasoned judgment of the portfolio managers helps to contextualize and interpret model rankings and validate key recommendations.
- The combination of the two disciplines results in a portfolio in which managers have high conviction in holdings, turnover is lower when compared to pure quant-run portfolios, and there is a deeper understanding of the portfolio's overall dynamics and composition.
- Portfolio managers monitor and manage overall portfolio risk, including Sector, Region and Currency exposures relative to the international benchmark.
