Investment Strategy & Process

Investment Strategy

- The Large Cap Value Equity Strategy is designed to capitalize on the inefficiencies in the equity market by using robust, quantitative stock selection models to identify undervalued companies that have attractive risk/return profiles.
- These market inefficiencies arise for a number of reasons, such as irrational investor behavior, over-extrapolation of trends and the different methodologies used by investors to value stocks, including different time horizons and risk tolerance levels.
- We believe one of the best ways to capture pricing anomalies is through the complementary disciplines of quantitative and fundamental analysis. Robust quantitative models provide a consistent and systematic means to capture inefficiencies, while a fundamental overlay approach empowers the data by providing context and perspective.

Investment Process

- The investment process begins with proprietary, quantitative research and modeling that helps us define the market environment, analyze the investment universe, and rank stocks from most to least attractive.
- Our proprietary, multi-factor model emphasizes key company characteristics, including valuation, growth and profitability, earnings quality, and investor sentiment.
- Fundamental research complements this data-focused analysis. The portfolio team contributes a qualitative overlay to the process by reviewing buy/sell candidates and industry rankings to contextualize and interpret model rankings and validate key recommendations.
- The combination of the two disciplines results in a portfolio in which managers have high conviction in holdings, turnover is typically 75 - 100 percent, and there is a deeper understanding of the portfolio's overall dynamics and composition.
- Sophisticated risk modeling is used to analyze and monitor portfolio risk on an ongoing basis.
